To whom it may concern,

I wish to inform you that Donovan King was employed by the City of Dorval, Library and Cultural Activities section, as a drama teacher in the program Dorval Drama, from September 1998 until May 1999. Along with another instructor, he taught children aged 10 to 14 years old various aspects of theatre such as games and exercises, vocal work, movement and characterization in a weekly two-hour class. He also directed them in their end-of-year production which was an original work created by the students with the help of their teachers.

Donovan was very competent and well liked by his students. His administrative skills were very good and he gave excellent direction to the class. I have no hesitation in recommending him as a drama instructor and director of children and young adults.

If you require any further information, please do not hesitate to call me at (514) 633-4170.

Yours sincerely,

Beverley Rankin, Cultural Animator
